NEW FAMILY FOR 2008

Columbia Opportunities has selected an unique family for the upcoming year. For the first time our family is headed by a single father who is raising 2 children.

As in the past, our first donation for the family will be a Winter Welcome collection. Anyone wishing to contribute can bring any clothing, food, games or Valentine related items to the February 1st meeting.

A FINAL WORD

Since your bulletin editor seemed to be the only person to actually have seen the Rotary float in the Rose Bowl Parade, I decided to include a photo for you.

Logged on to RI.org. Not there. Went online to find the Pasadena paper sure they would have a gallery of pictures. They did. 89 in fact. Multiples of some. But the Rotary float did not seem to be one of them. Further investigation located the parade line-up. The Rotary Float was 88th of 89 participants in the parade route. (Explains why it was the last thing shown on HGTV's coverage which doesn't have commercials and why others missed it while regular networks signed off with their sponsor messages.)

So your editor is left with including a promotional sketch of the float. Next year your editor will try to remember to include the float's location so no one will spend hours watching the parade in vain.

CANCELLATIONS

In the event of inclement weather or any need to cancel a meeting President Carol will email all members for whom she has addresses. We will then try to contact others by phone and notify radio station 98.5 Lite-FM. Or you can call the Vanderbilt as they would be the first notified.

A quick note: Carol and Jack both work in Kingston. Since the weather there and here in Philmont can be vastly different, please don't hesitate to contact her if you think the weather would be a problem.

JANUARY CELEBRATIONS

Happy Birthday to Carol Zincio who celebrates her big day today and Christine Ryan who celebrated this past Monday.

NEXT WEEK

We have invited our 2 Student of the Month designees to be our guests.

THE CORNELLS

I received a lovely note from George explaining that they had missed the Christmas party because Laura was ill. She is doing well. He sends his best wishes to all.

He writes a lovely note that makes you understand and long for a more gentele time when correspondence was in vogue. Pres. Carol

NEW MEMBER

We are pleased to announce Betty Ostrander will be rejoining our club.

Betty was an active and enthusiastic member and is a Past President. Even after leaving active membership, she continually supported the work of the Club showing up with husband Peter at so many of our events.

President Carol is proudly sponsoring her return.

DUES ARE DUE

The Club secretary is responsible for membership reporting. Please see Jack to pay your semi-annual dues and receive your Membership Card.
