News of Hal Mawhiney

LAST WEEK

Matt invited his lovely wife Elizabeth Angello to tell us about the 3rd Annual Chili Cook-Off they are sponsoring to benefit local emergency services.

The event will be held Saturday March 8th from 3-6pm at the Mellenville firehouse. The event will feature live local music, and chili prizes will be awarded based on votes of those attending.

Tickets are $10.00 at the door which gets you tasting and voting rights.

There are three categories of chili: 4-alarm, vegetarian, meat. Sign up by calling 672-7346, stopping by the Main St. Public House or email Elizabeth at: elizabethan64@hotmail.com

TONIGHT

Carolyn Moynihan has invited Judy Davis to speak. Judy is a registered dietitian and will discuss nutrition.

NEXT WEEK

Christine Ryan is program chair.

Northern Columbia's bulletin reports Hal Mawhiney's family has moved him to a nursing home in Rhode Island. No word on his wife, Louise, but they assume she is with him.

The club has decided to do something special for Hal, since he may not return to Columbia County again. They have decided in lieu of a guest speaker on Feb. 21, they will make a movie for Hal asking people to offer stories and testimonials. A DVD will be sent so he can watch it to his heart's delight.

I'm sure if anyone from Philmont would like to attend and contribute they would be more than welcomed.

CONGRATULATIONS TO US

DISTRICT CONFERENCE

This year Philmont will actually be one of the closest clubs to the Conference site. Members will be heading north to the Holiday Inn in Saratoga Springs the weekend of 5/30-6/1.

Jack and Carol Ann have attended the past 2 years and can attribute to what a fun, educational weekend a conference can be.

While there are working sessions the weekend is a great opportunity to meet other Rotarians, exchange ideas, learn what is going on in the District and at RI. There are also social activities, hospitality suites, and free time to explore the area.

Jack has registration forms available. If you want to have an enjoyable weekend at a reasonable price consider attending.

INSTALLATION

Carl Calvin and his officers will be installed on Sunday June 29th here at the Vanderbilt.

We have been holding our installation on Sundays the past couple of years and it has proven to be a lovely well attended social evening.

So mark the date, invite some friends and plan on making Carl's evening special.

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY
