LAST WEEK

Darrin French was once again our guest. This time as the winner of the 2008 Herb Harder Scholarship.

He has had an impressive, intense high school career. His activities included SADD, Student Council, National Honor Society, Drama Club, Amnesty Inter., All County and All State Band, Names project (AIDS quilt), and Yearbook committee.

An honors student, Darin took college credit courses at TH, scored 100% on 3 Regents exams in his sophomore year, was a student mentor and competed 2 years in the American Legion Oratorical Contest advancing to the State finals.

Outside of school he has worked on Bloodmobiles, served as a lector and sings in the choir at his church.

You may also have seen him this summer at the MacHayden Theater.

This is not Darrin's first visit to our club. He attended RYLA and was one of our Students of the Month last year.

Darin is active in theater, dance and music. He will be attending Northwestern studying Theater Arts.

BLOOD DRIVE

Thank you to everyone who worked and all who donated blood permitting us to hold another successful drive.

NEXT WEEK

Bob Moseley has invited Mary Jean Hoose to talk about the needs of the local food pantry.

WE SHALL NEVER FORGET
09 11

Although we won't be holding a Memorial Service this year, we can not forget the victims of the 2001 attacks nor the brave men and women who have answered the call to serve their country.
