LAST WEEK

President Carl conducted an open meeting to discuss topics of the recent board meeting.

Matt Perry reported on this year's Pumpkin Walk to be held on Saturday October 25th from 4 till 8.

The club will again offer baked goods and drinks for sale. We will need a list of who can work, what they can bring and also if anyone is available to act as judges for the pie eating contest.

If you have never been to the Pumpkin Walk it really is an interesting, fun evening.

Jack has ordered the books for the 2nd grade for the Dictionary Project at Taconic Hills.

We have been invited by the District to join in supporting a couple of different projects. The club overwhelmingly feels that with the many needs here in our community we should investigate other international programs before committing our support.

TONIGHT

Jack and Carol will tell us about doing Charleston.

Open House

We will be hosting another gathering for prospective members later this month. Please give names of those you wish to invite to Sherry Ritchie.

OUR FAMILY

Time to collect items for our family for Halloween. While snacks, toys and Trick or Treat items are appropriate, with the current economy we should probably concentrate on food and warmer clothing.
